

Data Centre Dynamic Conference 2012

DatacenterDynamics Converged Hong Kong pulls together the people, processes and technology necessary to execute a world class data center strategy under one roof.

It gathered the people, processes and technology necessary to execute a world class data center strategy under one roof. Attendees in majority responsible for the direction, tactical management, and operational implementation of their data center strategy.

